Leading Wine Expert Pairs Wine Discovery Seminars, with Cruising Under Sail, for a Romantic Valentine's Day Getaway to Savor

TYNGSBORO, MA & LONDONDERRY, NH – JANUARY 10, 2005 – What's the ultimate Valentine's Day 2005 getaway? Learning the secrets of enjoying fine wines from a renowned expert, while basking under the sails of the world's most romantic cruise line in the sunny Caribbean. Sought-after wine expert Levent Bozkurt will host a lucky group onboard Windstar Cruises' Wind Surf, sailing for seven nights, roundtrip from Cozumel, Mexico, on February 13, 2005 to Honduras, Belize and Costa Maya. Limited availability remains for the trip, which can be booked through 02Cruise.com, the Internet's Cruise Superstore.

Having won the prestigious Wine Spectator Grand Award for Outstanding Restaurant Wine Lists and the AAA Four Diamond Award as proprietor of Silks at Stonehedge Inn in Tyngsboro, Massachusetts, Mr. Bozkurt passionately shares his excitement about the world of wine. "I love helping wine novices and aficionados alike to learn more about enjoying fine wines," he explains. "With about 5 hours of seminars and tastings aboard our wine discovery cruise, everyone will leave with the ability to pair wine and food with confidence."

The upscale-but-relaxed environment and gourmet cuisine onboard Windstar Cruises perfectly complements Mr. Bozkurt's informative-but-informal wine seminars, says Evan Eggers, president of 02Cruise.com. "With only about 300 passengers aboard, there are no lines, no set dining times, and no need to bring formalwear. And since Windstar's ships visit exclusive ports of call that the megaliners can't reach, passengers discover the hidden Caribbean as if on their own private yacht. It is a perfect combination for a relaxing, romantic Valentine's Day."

The trip is priced at $1,804 per person double occupancy, including cruise fare, taxes and fees, Mr. Bozkurt's wine tastings and hosted dinners, and a complimentary upgrade to a Category A stateroom while availability permits. Airfare, airport transfers, gratuities, recommended trip protection, and onboard extras such as spa services and casino, are additional.
